taha'a

It takes two quick bits of inter-island hopping to get to this secluded island: a 40-minute flight from Tahiti to Raiatea, and a 35-minute boat ride from there to Taha'a.

The island is richly blessed with lush mountains and valleys, shimmering translucent lagoons, virgin 'motu' islets and it is well known for its watermelon, vanilla and copra production. She offers a glimpse of the traditional, tranquil life of the Tahitians.
